A big hot air balloon festival in Albuquerque is coming this year. It lasts for 9 days from the first Saturday to the second Sunday of October. Children are not allowed on the hot air balloon if they are under 110cm. And children under 6 has to board with parents. When taking the hot air balloon, it is better for anyone with long hair to tie it up and to wear hats with brim. The ticket is 30 dollars every person.

Last year, people all over the country came to see different shapes and colors of balloons. We stayed there for 5 days. There were 500 hot air balloons rising to the sky at the same time. How amazing! The festival started from 7:00 am., however, people had to come at about 5:00 am in order to avoid traffic jam.

After the activity, people could have a picnic on the grassland or buy some snacks there, like fried chicken, sandwiches, donut, ice cream and drinks. In the afternoon, there were music show and fire plays.

Through the festival, I also learned the history of the hot air balloon. Many people enjoyed the beautiful view of the hot air balloons. It was a great festival and it was fun, too.
